Privacy Policy

The EU project Cyber-MAR ("we", "us") is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy sets out the basis on which your personal data will be processed by us in connection with our communication and dissemination processes. Please read the following document carefully, to understand our views and practices regarding your personal data and how we will handle it. When you register to our newsletter, these Privacy Policy provisions will apply to our processing of your personal data.

Purpose of Data Processing

Periodic newsletters of Cyber-MAR are a key communication and dissemination mechanism for us and a channel to provide our valuable stories on Cyber-MAR’s developments, key findings, forthcoming events and other important news in the fields related to the project. Taking into consideration the above, the Cyber-MAR Consortium use information held about you in the following ways:

- To send you Cyber-MAR’s periodic E-Newsletter;
- To send you invitations for our coming events, workshops, pilots and demonstrations;
- To send you notifications containing key project’s findings/developments and lead stories and news related to the project

Security of Processing

The Cyber-MAR mailing list is a secure list held on the MailChimp platform. Should you need more information on how your data are processed, please see the MailChimp privacy policy: https://mailchimp.com/legal/privacy/

Should you ever wish to unsubscribe, simply use the “Unsubscribe” link included in future communications or you may withdraw your consent any time (without retroactive effect) by sending an email to: info@lists.cyber-mar.eu
Exercise of your rights

It is noted that according to the General Data Protection Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016), you may exercise the following rights that derive from the Regulation:

- Right of access and right to rectification for inaccurate personal data
- Right to erasure of personal data if they are not necessary for service provision
- Right to restrict processing of your data
- Right to object to the processing of your data
- Right to data portability, namely right to receive your data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable form so that they can be transferred to another data processor.

- Additionally, you have the right to submit a written complaint to the responsible supervisory body for personal data protection in each country.

How to complain

We hope that we can resolve any query or concern you raise about our use of your information. The General Data Protection Regulation also gives you right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, in particular in the European Union (or European Economic Area) state where you work, normally live or where any alleged infringement of data protection laws occurred.
