

Trainers of the FORESIGHT Training on Hacking firmware & Aviation Cyber Training

Sebastien Peynet

Project Manager at AIRBUS CyberSecurity SAS (ACS)

Sébastien Peynet, certified PMI PMP, is a Project Manager with over 20 years of experience in various IT projects. He holds a Master's Degree in Information System engineering and Electronics. He started with software development in real-time embedded environment. He joined Airbus in 1999 as System Validation Manager and moved to Project Office Management on 2008 as Maintenance and Forensic Project Manager. He joined Airbus CyberSecurity on 2011, as Training Project Manager, then Middle–East project Manager, and Incident Response Manager on 2019. He is currently handling R&T and MoD project.

---

Lorin Mace

Technical Leader at AIRBUS CyberSecurity SAS (ACS)

Lorin Mace is a CyberSecurity engineer. He holds an engineering degree on information security as well as a master degree in information security research. He is working as developer on Airbus CyberSecurity CyberRange platform since 2018. He is also working on multiple integration projects as well as research projects, and teaches information security.

---

Nikos Papagiannopoulos

Senior Project Manager at Athens International Airport S.A. (AIA)

Nikos Papagiannopoulos is a senior project manager working in the IT department of Athens International Airport. He is an expert in airport IT solutions, and a consultant and implementer of many large-scale information management projects both local and international (India, Eastern Europe and other deployments). He also has considerable experience in airport and airline operations and business requirements both from an operational and a commercial standpoint. He is a PMP, CISA, CRISC, CISSP, ITIL Certified, MSc and MBA holder.

---

Egils Maibergs

Security Specialist, Penetration Tester at CYBEXER (CYB)

Egils Malbergs, a Certified Ethical Hacker (CEH) is a junior security specialist and penetration tester at CybExer Technologies. He has previous experience in full stack development with responsibilities in user interaction on websites, developing servers and databases and coding for mobile platforms. He has also been a system administrator at a co-educational school setting up and configuring both Windows and Linux workstations, administering servers and virtualisation. At the school he also taught a number of information technology subjects.

---